CALL FOR PAPERS: THE 2004 LATIN AMERICAN MEETING of the Econometric Society will be held in Santiago, Chile, July 28-30. The host institutions are Universidad de Chile and Universidad Católica de Chile. The Local organizers are Raphael Bergoeing, Centro de Economía Aplicada, Universidad de Chile, and Raimundo Soto, Instituto de Economía, Universidad Católica de Chile. The meeting is open to all economists and econometricians, including those that are not currently members of the Econometric Society. The program will consist of contributed and invited papers in economics and econometrics, both theoretical and applied. Prospective contributions should represent original work not previously presented at the Latin American Meetings of the Econometric Society. Submissions of a complete version of the paper and a 200 word abstract should be made no later than April 15th, 2004. It is expected that decisions on submissions will be made by May 31. Only electronic submissions will be accepted. Authors shall follow the instructions for the submission at www.econometricsociety.org/conference. Each participant at the conference may present at most one paper (but can coauthor more than one paper in the program). Information on the conference details and logistics shall be available soon at the CEA webpage (www.dii.uchile.cl/cea/) and at the Instituto de Economía web page (volcan.facea.puc.cl/economia/).
