Announcement and Call for Papers PET 2008 Seoul, Korea, June 27- 29, 2008 The Association for Public Economic Theory (APET) is pleased to announce that it will hold its Ninth international meeting In Seoul, Korea June 27 to June 29, 2008. The conference will start with a tour of Seoul and a welcome reception on June 26, and will include a gala dinner on on June 27 with traditional Korea performances and a reception an June 28. We will also be arranging additional tours on June 30 for those off you who are interested. Please go to the conference website for more detailed information on the schedule, events, accommodations, and to submit your paper: www.APET.org The submission deadline is March 1, 2008. The main purposes of the Association for Public Economic Theory (APET), the association of the Journal of Public Economic Theory, are to promote public economic theory generally and to foster interaction between theorists, applied and empirical researchers in public economics and related fields. The organizers will therefore welcome papers in all areas of economic theory and of public economics (broadly defined). You may also be interested in a special event just before PET08 to be held at the National University of Singapore. Please see the announcement below. We hope to see you this summer! Youngsub Chun John Conley Myrna Wooders Special issue and small conference NUS, Singapore, June 24-25 2008 APET in partnership with NUS will sponsor a small specialized conference limited to approximately 15-20 presentations on the topic of: Charity, Altruism and Voluntary Contributions. This will be held at the National University of Singapore, June 24 and June 25, 2008. More details will be posted as they become available at <http://www.accessecon.com/pubs/PETLASO/> The organizing committee will be chaired by Professor Parkash Chander, Chair of the Economics Department of NUS (ecsparka@nus.edu.sg) in collaboration with John Conley and Myrna Wooders. In addition, JPET will be publishing a special issue on this topic, for which Professor Chander will be a guest editor.
