CONFERENCE IN HONOUR OF PAUL NEWBOLD: UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM, 21-22 SEPTEMBER 2007. The Granger Centre for Time Series Econometrics and the School of Economics, University of Nottingham will host a conference on 21st - 22nd September 2007 to celebrate the career of Paul Newbold, following his recent retirement. The format of the conference will be single-session with five keynote speakers and additional contributed papers. The keynote speakers are: Peter Phillips (Yale University) Peter Robinson (London School of Economics) Bruce Hansen (University of Wisconsin-Madison) Pierre Perron (Boston University) Graham Elliott (University of California, San Diego) A conference website with further details on the event can be accessed via <http://www.nottingham.ac.uk/economics/grangercentre/conference/> We are now welcoming submission of contributed papers, commensurate with the conference theme, for presentation at the conference. A preference will be given to papers that link in with the work of Paul Newbold. In order to submit your work for the conference, please e-mail a PDF of your paper (or extended abstract) to robert.taylor@nottingham.ac.uk by 14 July 2007. You will be informed of a decision by 30 July 2007. Please pass on this alert to anyone you know who might be interested. Robert Taylor (on behalf of the organising committee)
