ANNOUNCEMENT

Foundation for allergy research in Europe—FARE—Gold Medal 2004

Dear Sir,

Under the name of European Foundation for Allergy Research in Europe (FARE) an institution founded January 1974 (revision of the statutes June 1976) in Basel, Switzerland, as independent corporate body. The FARE succeeded to the European Institute for Allergy Research, which was registered in Utrecht, Holland, in August 1966. According to the statutes, the purpose of the foundation is to promote research in the field of allergology and to bestow the Gold Medal of the European Foundation for Allergy Research at least every third year.

The Gold Medal of the foundation is a distinction bestowed upon a scientist, who has recently contributed important work in the field of allergology.

The winners of Gold Medal in the past were:

1971  Professor S. G. O. Johansson, Stockholm, Sweden
1974  Dr. B. Weeke, Copenhagen, Denmark
1977  Professor J. Bach, Paris, France
1980  Dr. H. Lowenstein, Copenhagen, Denmark
1983  Dr. W. Parish, Bedfor, United Kingdom
1986  Dr. C. André Lyon, France
1989  Professor D. Vervloet, Marseille, France
