ANNOUNCEMENT

New Prize for Achievement in Information-Based Complexity

This annual prize is for outstanding achievement in information-based complexity. It will consist of three thousand dollars ($3,000) and a certificate and will be awarded at a suitable location. The initial prize committee will consist of Joseph F. Traub and Henryk Wozniakowski. Anyone other than current members of the prize committee is eligible. The members of the prize committee would appreciate nominations for the prize. However, a person does not have to be nominated to win the award.

The deadline for the first award is June 30, 1999. The achievement can be based on work done in a single year, a number of years, or over a

This prize is separate from the Journal of Complexity's Best Paper Award.
