This article has been retracted at the request of the Author.

This article has been retracted as it is reproduces significant parts of text that have already been published in ‘Three-dimensional finite element simulation and parametric study for horizontal well hydraulic fracture’, G.M. Zhang, H. Liu, J. Zhang, H.A. Wu, X.X. Wang, Journal of Petroleum Science and Engineering 72 (2010) 310–317, http://dx.doi.org/10.1016/j.petrol.2010.03.032. The amount of new research presented in this paper is not sufficient to justify a separate publication. The authors would like to apologise to the scientific community for this oversight.
